Deployment Licenses for LabVIEW Real-Time Module

A LabVIEW Real-Time deployment license is required when targeting a LabVIEW Real-Time application to any National Instruments-supported real-time operating system. The deployment license is already included with all NI FP-20xx, NI cFP-20xx, NI CVS-145x, NI PCI-7041, and NI RT Series PXI embedded controllers, but additional deployment licenses are required for every ETS targeted computer.
