

NI Supplier Code of Conduct

National Instruments expects our suppliers to be responsible global citizens by adhering to the laws and regulations in the countries where they do business. Furthermore, to meet NI's minimum expectations, we require our suppliers to comply with the Electronic Industry Citizenship Coalition (EICC Code of Conduct) (<http://www.eicc.info/code.html>) for the fair treatment of workers, for a healthy and safe work environment, for the protection of the environment, and for outstanding business ethics.
